Amit B. Patel

Associate

Amit is an associate in the Firm's technology and corporate and transactional practice groups. Amit's practice focuses on providing strategic business and legal counsel to businesses of all sizes, from startups to multinational corporations and their founders, investors, and boards of directors across a broad spectrum of areas ranging from private equity, mergers and acquisitions, and commercial transactional matters.

Throughout his career, Amit has successfully handled a wide range of transactional matters, including complex domestic and international transactions, mergers and acquisitions, corporate restructuring, joint ventures, and commercial agreements on his client's behalf. His meticulous attention to detail, combined with his strategic thinking and business acumen, has earned him a reputation for providing practical and innovative legal solutions.

Amit takes a client-centric approach to legal representation. He listens attentively to clients' goals and concerns, crafting tailored strategies that align with their objectives. He is dedicated to building strong client relationships based on trust, transparency, and open communication. By understanding his clients' goals and objectives, Amit provides strategic advice that aligns with their business objectives while minimizing legal risks. His ability to provide strategic guidance while remaining cognizant of the ever-changing legal landscape ensures that clients receive the highest level of representation.
