Harry J. Winograd, Principal

Harry concentrates in business litigation with emphasis on trial practice. He has represented clients in sixteen (16) states, appearing in both state and federal courts and arbitration. He also serves as an Adjunct Professor at Emory University School of Law in the Kessler-Eidson Trial Techniques Program. Harry uses his experience to develop effective solutions to the most complex, difficult and often contentious business arrangements. Harry co-authors the authoritative legal resource book "Georgia Business Litigation" in which he covers "Limited Liability Company and Partnership Litigation." He has published articles with the Institute of Continuing Legal Education in Georgia and other publications. Harry is a sought after speaker on topics including business divorces, data and e-discovery, damages in commercial litigation, restrictive covenants, and trade secrets.

Harry is recognized by his peers as an AV Attorney by Martindale-Hubbell (the highest possible rating) and a Martindale-Hubbell AV Preeminent Judicial Edition rated attorney (the highest possible rating reflecting the confidential opinions of the members of the Bar and Judiciary). He is rated 10 out of 10 by AVVO, recognized as a Georgia Super Lawyer since 2004 (chosen through the independent research of Law & Politics magazine) and recognized by Georgia Trend magazine as a Legal Elite.
